

Householders' Languages

LANGUAGE SPOKEN BY HOUSEHOLDER

- English is not the native language for 47% of the householders with children 0-5, a share higher than the city average at 33%.
- Almost half (44%) of them speak English "well" or "very well"
- Challenge: 8300 people raising 0-5 speak little or no English

SOURCE: U.S. Census Bureau, 2000, Public Use Microdata (PUMS) 5% Sample, BRA Research Division Analysis